YOKOYAMA Mina, soprano

IINO Aska, piano

KAI Fumiko, Violin

ARAI Sachiko, cello

It is often thought that classical composers are all male. However, since the 19th century, female composers such as Fanny Mendelssohn and Clara Schumann have produced excellent works. In this lecture concert, Hiroshi Aoshima, who is well known for his TV and concert performances, will give an enjoyable and easy-to-understand introduction to the appeal of female composers through the performances of:
